CRITERION

1967

THE ACADEMIC YEAR 1967

BRISTOL PUBLIC LIBRARY
701 Goode Street
Bristol, Virginia 24201

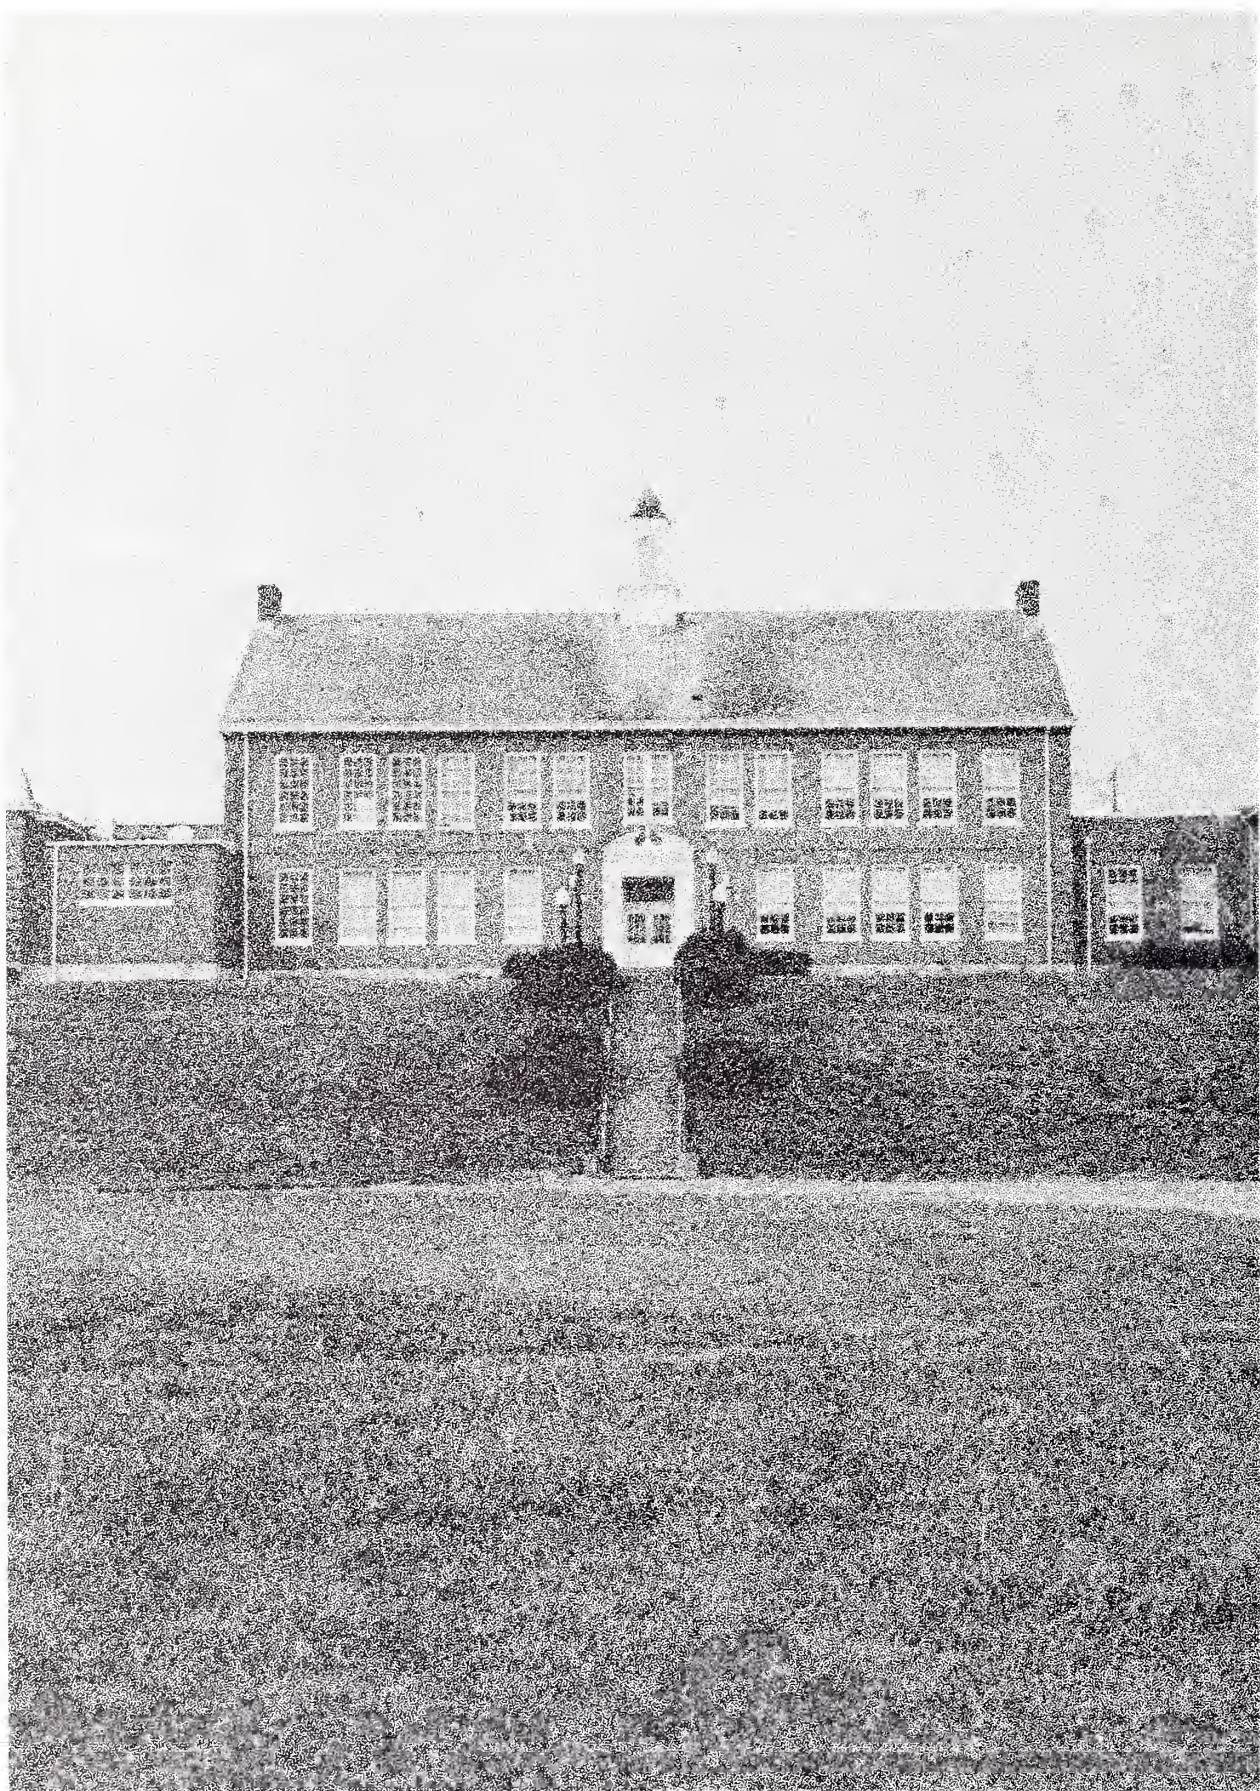

It is the intent of the '67 CRITERION Staff to present to Holston Valley High School one of the finest yearbooks possible. The purpose of our annual is to preserve the memories of our Alma Mater and events of the past year. As we review these happenings and see the many phases of school life, we find included administration, academic departments, classes, athletics, and activities.

It is with great pleasure that we present to you, the faculty and the student body, the '67 CRITERION. We trust you will enjoy this memorable account now, as well as in the years to come.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

Every spring the FHA participates in FHA week which is celebrated nationally. The girls try to do something different each day of the week and end with their annual banquet. This spring an FHA and FFA party has also been planned. The club has also been fixing tray favors each holiday for the patients at the Nursing Home.

IN MEMORIAM

We, the Class of 1967, wish to dedicate this page in memory of our former classmate and friend, Pfc. Chester Stacy Hughes. Chester was killed in action in Viet Nam on September 15, 1966. We are proud to have had the privileges of knowing and associating with one who fought and died so that the world may be a better place in which we and the future generations may live.
